

Allsorts Safeguarding Children Statement

Allsorts believes that it is unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind and recognises its responsibilities to safeguard the welfare of all children in our care. We recognise that:

- The welfare of the child is paramount.
- All children regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation, or identity have the right to equal protection from all types of harm and abuse.
- Working in partnership with children and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

Allsorts childcare follows the procedures set out by Local Safeguarding Partners and as such will seek advice on all steps taken and our staff will adhere to their guidelines. We must report any suspicion of abuse to Dorset CHAD whether this stems from allegations against carers/parents or the general public. Any allegations against staff must be reported to the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) by calling 01305 221122 or emailing lado@dorsetcouncil.gov.uk.

In March 2015, new statutory duties were placed on education settings by the Counter Terrorism and Security Act (2015). The Act means we must work to prevent children being drawn into extremism. It is our responsibility to follow the policy and procedure and that staff ensure the safety and well-being of children in our care.

Risk Assessments are carried out on a daily bases and all policies and procedures are regularly reviewed and updated. The setting has numerous policies and procedures for safeguarding children and all clearly state that the protection of children is paramount to the setting. These can be found in all our rooms, on Famly and on our website - www.allsortschildcare.co.uk.
